IV. INSTRUCTIONAL PROCEDURES:

1. Lectures on the designated chapters from the textbook
2. Discussion of the reading assignments and critical thinking questions about them
3. Visual representations in the form of DVDs and/or examples

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES:

- A. Required textbooks, materials, and equipment – The textbook for this course is titled Introduction to Mass Communication: Media Literacy and Culture by Stanley J. Baran, Ninth Edition. No other materials are required.
- B. Assignments – Students are responsible for reading all assigned chapters in the textbook and for studying for the three major tests and three quizzes during the semester. Also, three written essays will be assigned on topics from selected chapters in the textbook. The instructor may assign other written or oral projects. (See Course Schedule for more detail)
- C. Course Policies – (This course conforms to the policies of Angelina College as stated in the Angelina College Handbook.)
- 1. Academic Assistance – If you have a disability (as cited in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990) that may affect his or her participation in this class, you should see Sellestine Hunt, associate dean of Student Services, Room 200 of the Student Center. At a post-secondary institution, you must self-identify as a person with a disability; Mrs. Hunt will assist you with the necessary information to do so.
Angelina College admits students without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, or age. To report any complaints of discrimination related to disability, contact the Mr. Steve Hudman, dean of Student Affairs, Room 101 in the Student Center, or call 936-633-5292, or by email at shudman@angelina.edu.
 - 2. Attendance and Tardiness – Students are expected to attend all classes and be on time. Any student with three (3) consecutive absences or four (4) cumulative or random absences may be dropped from the class. Do not assume that non-attendance in class will always result in an instructor drop. A student must officially drop a class or risk receiving an F in that class. If a student does not drop or accumulates four (4) random absences after the drop date, the student's final grade will be lowered by one grade. Three times of being tardy to class will equal one absence.
 - 3. Leaving class during class time – Students are expected to stay in class for the whole time until the instructor says they may leave. If any student just needs a quick bathroom break, please feel free to leave the class at any time. However, leaving class early for any other reason is rude and disruptive to the instructor and fellow students. If it is imperative that a student leave class early, please get permission before the class starts; otherwise, that student will be counted absent.
 - 4. Cell Phones – PLEASE TURN OFF OR SILENCE ALL CELL PHONES DURING CLASS TIME TO BE ABLE TO CONCENTRATE ON THE COURSE. If a cell phone rings during class or a student is caught texting during class, that student will be asked to leave class and will receive an absence for that day.
 - 5. Computers – Computers may be brought to class for taking notes for this class only. If a student is caught doing anything other than taking notes for the class, he or she will be asked to leave the computer at home.
 - 6. Tests – Students are expected to take the three major tests on the days they are given. If an extreme emergency makes this impossible or the student has obtained permission from the instructor in advance to miss the test, the student should schedule a makeup test before the tests are returned to the other students and discussed in class. No makeups will be allowed for the three quizzes.

VI. COURSE CONTENT:

This course is designed for all communication majors as well as non-majors in other disciplines. The content is designed to acquaint students with many aspects of mass media and to familiarize them with how the media work from the practitioner's and the consumer's points of view. We will look at the effects of mass media on each other and on our society to determine implications for the future.
