- C. Course Policies – (This course conforms to the policies of Angelina College as stated in the Angelina College Handbook.)

1. Academic Assistance – If you have a disability (as cited in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990) that may affect your participation in this class, you should see Maria Lopez in Student Services, Student Center, Room 200. At a post-secondary institution, you must self-identify as a person with a disability. Ms. Lopez will assist you with the necessary information to do so. To report any complaints of discrimination related to disability, you should contact the Mr. Steve Hudman, Dean of Student Affairs, in the Student Center, Room 101 or 936-633-5292 or by email shudman@angelina.edu.

2. Attendance – Attendance is required as per Angelina College Policy and will be recorded every day. Any student with three (3) consecutive absences or four (4) cumulative absences may be dropped from the class. Records will be turned in to the academic dean at the end of the semester. Do not assume that non-attendance in class will always result in an instructor drop. You must officially drop a class or risk receiving an F. This is official Angelina College Policy. If a student determines not to continue the course, the normal procedures for dropping a course must be instituted and followed by the student. Failure to drop a course may result in a grade of WF which, for the purpose of the student's records, is a grade of "F". It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor prior to any absence that may be considered excusable due to reasonable circumstances. Incompletes will be granted only in emergency situations and will require approval of the Dean of Instruction and Admissions.

3. Additional Policies Established by the Instructor

This class meets twice weekly with one lab each week. Assignments are to be turned in on specified due dates. No late work will be accepted except under appropriate circumstances, such as excused absence or emergency. Punctual, regular attendance of lectures and labs is mandatory. Three tardies constitutes an absence. Leaving early from class will also constitute an absence.

DROP POLICY - A student may be dropped by the instructor for disruptive behavior, WHICH INCLUDES USING ELECTRONICS IN CLASS, ENTERING CLASSROOM LATE THEREBY INTERRUPTING INSTRUCTION, INAPPROPRIATE DRESS, OR OTHER ACTIONS THAT DISTRACT STUDENTS OR INSTRUCTOR FROM CLASS PROCEDURES.

Cell Phones - PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES DURING CLASS TIME TO BE ABLE TO CONCENTRATE ON THE COURSE.

Exams, Assignments and Critiques – Students are expected to take the two exams on the days they are given. If an extreme emergency makes this impossible and the student has obtained permission from the instructor in advance to miss the exam, the student should schedule a makeup exam before the exams are returned to the other students and discussed in class. Informal class critiques will be held for all class projects. Students are expected to attend critique and to have their projects completed. Assignments turned in late will have points deducted.
