Geography 1303: World Regional Geography
Instructional Syllabus

I. BASIC COURSE INFORMATION:

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION: Three hours credit. This course is an introduction to the world's major regions seen through their defining physical, social, cultural, political, and economic features. These regions are examined in terms of their physical and human characteristics and their interactions. The course emphasizes relations among regions on issues such as trade, economic development, conflict, and the role of regions in the globalization process. Three lecture hours each week.

B. INTENDED AUDIENCE: This course is intended for students who would like to learn about the human and physical geographic factors that influence global events within the context of world regions. The academic discipline of geography will provide a foundation for students to understand past, current, and future global events.

To be successful in the course, it will be necessary for you to complete the exams, map quizzes, Internet activities, and discussions before the posted deadlines and keep up with assigned readings. Makeup exams will be given at a designated time only for students who missed exams when they were first offered. There are NO makeup quizzes.

C. Course policies – Concerning attendance, it is your responsibility to log in to Blackboard at least five days per week to check for e-mail, announcements, and other course-related information. The instructor WILL NOT drop students from the course. Students who choose to drop the course are responsible for completing the process.

Educational Accommodations – If you have a disability (as cited in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990) that may affect your participation in this class, you may fill out the Educational Accommodations application within your AC Portal, under the “Student Services” tab. A Student Success team member will contact you once the application is received. At a post-secondary institution, you must self-identify as a person with a disability in order to receive services; for questions regarding the application process you can visit the Office of Student Success and Inclusion in the Student Center (205A); text 936.463.8078; or email access@angelina.edu. To report any complaints of discrimination related to a disability, you should contact Mr. Steve Hudman, Dean of Student Affairs, in Room 101 of the Student Center. You may also contact Dean Hudman by calling (936) 633-5292 or by emailing shudman@angelina.edu.

Additional Policies Established by the Individual Instructor

If you have a question, please type the word “Question” in the subject box in Blackboard, the course management system. Questions will always receive priority over other e-mail.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

As stated in the Angelina College Distance Learning Policies and Procedures Manual, “The college and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism and collusion. Cheating or plagiarism in any degree will not be tolerated by the college and will result in no less than a failing grade on the assignment in question. Further proceedings to have the violator suspended from class and/or from the college may be initiated through the current policy of the college on grievances.

Cheating includes:

- a. Copying from another student’s test paper, laboratory report, other report, or computer files, data listings, and/or programs.
- b. Using materials during a test that are not authorized by the test administrator.
- c. Collaborating with another person or persons during an examination or in preparing academic work without authorization.
- d. Knowingly, and without authorization, using, buying, selling, stealing, soliciting, copying, or possessing, in whole or part, the contents of an unadministered test.

e. Substituting for another student, permitting any person, or otherwise assisting any other person to substitute for oneself or for another student in the taking of an examination or the preparation of academic work to be submitted for academic credit.

f. Purchasing or otherwise acquiring and submitting as one's work any research paper or writing assignment prepared by an individual or firm. Plagiarism means the appropriation of another's work or idea and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work or idea in one's own written work offered for credit. Collusion means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit."

In addition to this syllabus, please read the Angelina College Distance Learning Policies and Procedures Manual in its entirety.
