

Angelina College – School of Arts and Education
COMM 2332 – Radio/Television News
Instructional Syllabus

I. BASIC COURSE INFORMATION:

- A. COURSE DESCRIPTION: Three hours credit. Preparation and analysis of news styles for the electronic media. Two hours lecture/four hours lab per week. Prerequisites: COMM 1307 and COMM 2311.

In our class at Angelina College, the students will be applying the concepts learned in COMM 2311 Media Writing to write stories for The Pacer and AC View. Skills involved include news reporting, opinion writing and feature writing, typography, editing, and at times some layout on Macintosh computers.

- B. INTENDED AUDIENCE: Journalism students who have taken COMM 2311 Media Writing.

- C. INSTRUCTOR: Libby Stapleton

Office Location: Hudgins Hall, Room 102D

Office Hours: Stapleton – Mondays 1-4 p.m.

Wednesdays 2:45-4 p.m.

Tuesdays and Thursdays 9-9:30 a.m.

Fridays 9 a.m.-4 p.m. by appointment

Phone: Stapleton – 936-633-5288

E-mail address: Stapleton – lstapleton@angelina.edu

II. INTENDED STUDENT OUTCOMES:

- A. Core Objectives for this course –

1. Critical Thinking – to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
2. Communication – to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication
3. Teamwork – to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.

- B. Course Objectives for all sections –

1. To give journalism majors practical experience in publishing a newspaper and/or a magazine
2. To use Macintosh computers to develop advanced skills in journalistic writing, editing and layout of newspapers and/or a magazine
3. To give student media writers continued practice in following Associated Press style rules.
3. To give staff members an opportunity to compete with other colleges and universities around the state and learn about their publications staffs.
4. To give media writers an opportunity to work as a team to decide on stories and to lay out the newspaper and/or magazine.

III. ASSESSMENT MEASURES OF STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- A. Since the course is practical experience in working on a newspaper and/or magazine staff, no tests will be given in this class; however, each student is assessed on his/her performance. Timely completion of all assignments as well as attendance will be considered as part of the final grade. At the end of the semester, EACH STUDENT MUST TURN IN A STRINGBOOK (PORTFOLIO) OF HIS/HER WORK DURING THE SEMESTER.
- B. Publication students have an opportunity to compete with students from Texas colleges and universities in the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association and Texas Community College Journalism Association contests.

IV. INSTRUCTIONAL PROCEDURES:

The instructor will guide the students in producing six newspapers during each regular semester. Teamwork is stressed.

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND POLICIES:

- A. Required textbooks, recommended materials and equipment – No textbook or other equipment or materials is required for this practical experience course.
- B. Course Policies – (This course conforms to the policies of Angelina College as stated in the Angelina College Handbook.)
 - 1. Educational Accommodations – If you have a disability (as cited in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990) that may affect your participation in this class, you may fill out the Educational Accommodations application within your AC Portal under the “Student Services” tab. A Student Success team member will contact you once the application is received. At a post-secondary institution, you must self-identify as a person with a disability in order to receive services. For questions regarding the application process, you can visit the Office of Student Success and Inclusion in the Student Center (Room 200) or text 936-463-8078 or email access@angelina.edu.

Angelina College admits students without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability, or age. To report any complaints of discrimination related to disability, contact the Mr. Steve Hudman, dean of Student Affairs, Room 104 in the Administration Building or call 936-633-5292 or by email shudman@angelina.edu.
 - 2. Attendance and Tardiness – Excessive absences are defined as three or more consecutive absences or four or more cumulative absences from regularly scheduled class periods. Virtual classes must document equivalent participation. The summer terms call for two or more consecutive or three or more cumulative absences. A three-hour night class counts as two class periods.

Excused Absences – Students will not be dropped and will be allowed to make up work for absences because of (1) College District (including early college high school) authorized and sponsored activities and (2) religious holy days. It is the student’s responsibility to arrange for make-up work with the instructor and to complete it within a reasonable time. In accordance with the Texas Education Code, each student is allowed to be absent from a class for the observance of a religious holy day. A “religious holy day” means a holy day observed by a religion whose places of worship are exempt from property taxation under Section 11.20, Tax Code. The student must notify the instructor of each class of the anticipated absence no later than the 15th calendar day after the first day of the semester. A student who is excused under this section must complete all assignments or missed examinations at the direction of the instructor.

Since the class is similar to working at a news organization, attendance is mandatory unless you have informed the instructor about your absence in advance. Students are expected to attend all classes and be on time. If you have three consecutive absences or four cumulative absences from the class, you will be dropped from the course.

3. Cell Phones – PLEASE TURN OFF ALL CELL PHONES DURING CLASS TIME TO BE ABLE TO CONCENTRATE ON YOUR WRITING ASSIGNMENTS. It is distracting to everyone when a cell phone rings or makes any kind of noise.

- C. Assignments – Students choose and/or receive individual assignments for each publication and must meet their deadlines. Each assignment is different because the students' work is published in the college publications. Students have an opportunity to interact in the planning process of the publications.

VI. COURSE CONTENT:

All work is practical experience writing for the student publications. Students choose or receive individual assignments for each publication and must meet their deadlines.

VII. EVALUATION AND GRADING:

Students are evaluated and given a grade of A through F on their performance of the specific tasks they were assigned as part of the publication of the student newspaper and/or magazine as accumulated in the stringbook (portfolio).

The instructor tries to make the class experience as close to a professional publication experience as possible. She will also take advantage of teachable moments whenever they arise and discuss related examples from professional media.

VIII. SYLLABUS MODIFICATION:

The instructors may modify the provisions of the syllabus to meet individual class needs by informing the class in advance as to the changes being made.

PUBLICATIONS CALENDAR:

The Pacer newspaper – Publication dates for the spring 2019 semester are Feb. 5 (printed), Feb. 14 (online), March 5 (printed), March 21 (online), April 9 (printed), and April 18 (online).

with the magazine being mailed around the first of April to current students and everyone on the current newspaper mailing list (including Board of Trustees members), and it is delivered to each division for that division's faculty members.
